Disclaimers

1. This picklist is intended to be used as a guide, not as a menu of options to select from in any given case. It sets out suggested standard wording for common types of conditions that arise; however, other than any compulsory conditions, many will not be appropriate in every case. Judges always have discretion in deciding how the law should be applied. They may or may not choose to use the picklist wording.
2. Anyone referring to the picklist is required to read the picklist number, if there is one, and the complete wording of the condition on the record.

Introductory Statements

1. Section 742.3(2)(f) provides for the imposition of reasonable conditions that are desirable “for securing the good conduct of the offender and for preventing a repetition by the offender of the same offence or the commission of other offences.”
2. Some conditions contain exceptions or options that may or may not be applicable depending on the circumstances.
